The organization may, on receipt of an application in writing from a Member whose membership has been terminated, reinstate such Member upon such terms and conditions as are decided by the organization on the recommendation of the Board. A suspended Member may be reinstated by the Board upon settlement of sums owing to the organization.

5. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

5.1 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

- (a) The organization must hold an Annual General Meeting each year.

5.2 World Ranger Congress

- (a) The organization shall hold a World Ranger Congress (WRC) meeting approximately every three years, which shall include the Annual General Meeting for that year and a Board meeting.
- (b) The World Ranger Congress is the highest authority of the IRF and shall have the duties and responsibilities as provided in the Bylaws and Regulations. The WRC may by Resolution make recommendations to the Board of Directors or any appropriate working group or committee on any matter affecting the IRF.
- (c) The Board of Directors shall develop and approve the criteria, procedures, requirements, and the process for the hosting of a World Ranger Congress. The Board shall make the final decision on the location, dates and arrangements for the World Ranger Congress.

5.3 Calling Annual General Meeting or a General Meetings of Members

The Annual or General Meeting is a meeting of Full Members:

- (a) may be convened at any time by the Board; with the required notice.
- (b) may be convened at any time, with required notice, by the Secretary upon the request in writing of at least 20 Members; and
- (c) must be convened by the Board for the World Ranger Congress and when required by the law.

5.4 Notice of meeting

- (a) Not less than 45 days' notice must be given of an Annual General Meeting of Full Members.
- (b) Notice of an Annual General Meeting of Members must be given to all Members entitled to attend the General Meeting, the Directors and the auditor of the organization in accordance with the law.

- (c) The Secretary must provide the President with a register of all eligible Full Members at least 30 days prior to any AGM. These registers, with any updates, will be read into the minutes before any votes are cast.

5.5 Short notice

Except when a resolution will be moved to remove a Director or appoints a Director in place of one removed shorter notice of a meeting may be given if:

- (a) an Annual General Meeting is to be called and all Full Members entitled to attend and vote agree beforehand; or
- (b) any other General Meeting is to be called and Full Members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.

5.6 Agenda

- (a) A notice of an Annual General Meeting must contain:
 - (i) in the case of a proposed Special Resolution details of the Special Resolution;
 - (ii) where applicable any notice of motion received from any Member or Director; and
 - (iii) where applicable, a list of all nominations received for positions to be elected at the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) No business other than that stated in the Notice of Meeting may be transacted at that Annual General Meeting.

5.7 Postponement or cancellation

Where a General Meeting (including an AGM) is convened by the Directors they may cancel the meeting or adjourn the meeting to a date and time they determine except when the General Meeting is convened by:

- (a) Full Members;
- (b) the Directors at the request of Full Members; or
- (c) a court.

5.8 Notice of cancellation or postponement

If a meeting of Members is adjourned for 1 month or more, the organization must give a new notice of the resumed meeting.

5.9 Notice postponing General Meeting

- (a) A notice postponing a General Meeting must specify:
 - (i) the new date and time for the meeting; and
 - (ii) the place where the meeting is to be held which may be either the same or different to the place specified in the original notice.
- (b) The number of days from the giving of a notice postponing a General Meeting to the date specified in that notice for the postponed meeting must not be less than the number of days' notice of that General Meeting required to be given by law.

5.10 Business at postponed General Meeting

The only business that may be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting is the business specified in the notice originally convening the meeting.

5.11 Non-receipt of notice

The non-receipt of a notice, convening, cancelling or adjourning a General Meeting by, or the accidental omission to give such a notice to, a person entitled to receive it does not invalidate any resolution passed at the General Meeting or at a postponed meeting or the cancellation or postponement of that meeting.

5.12 Technology

The organization may hold a meeting of Members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole an opportunity to participate.

6. PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

6.1 Right to appoint representative

- (a) Each Full Member is entitled to appoint an individual as its representative to attend and vote on behalf of that Full Member at General Meetings and to exercise the powers of the Full Member in relation to resolutions to be passed within meetings.
- (b) The individual appointed by the Full Member to be its representative at General Meetings must be an individual member of the appointing Full Member. A Director cannot be appointed as a Full Member's representative.
- (c) A Full Member may appoint more than one representative but only one representative may exercise the Full Member's powers at any General Meeting.
- (d) Full Members must notify the Secretary of their appointed authorised representatives no later than 48 hours prior to the General Meeting.

6.2 Member present at meeting

If a Full Member has appointed a proxy or a representative to act a meeting of Members, that Full Member is taken to be present at a meeting at which the proxy or representative is present.

6.3 Quorum

The quorum for a General Meeting is 25% and must include 75% of the Regions of all Full Members.

6.4 Quorum not present

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time for which a meeting of Members is called:

- (a) if called as a result of a request of Members the meeting is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case the meeting stands adjourned to such other day, time and place as the Chair determines and if a quorum is not present at the adjourned meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

6.5 Chairing meetings of Members

- (a) The President of the Board will also act as Chair at every General Meeting.
- (b) If the President is not present at the time for which a meeting of Members is called or is not willing to chair the meeting, the Vice President chair the meeting. If the President and Vice President are not present the Members present must elect a Director present to chair the meeting.

6.6 Adjournment

The Chair of a general meeting of Full Members at which a quorum is present, must, if directed by an Ordinary Resolution of the meeting, adjourn it to another time and place.

6.7 Business at adjourned meetings

The only business that may be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment is the business left unfinished immediately before the adjournment.

7. PROXIES

7.1 Appointment of proxies

A Full Member may appoint a proxy to attend and act for the Full Member at a meeting of Members. An appointment of proxy must be made by written notice to the organization:

- (a) in any other form and mode that is, and is signed or acknowledged by the Full Member in a manner, satisfactory to the Board.

7.2 Deposit of proxy forms

An appointment of a proxy is not effective unless the proxy form, or a facsimile of that signed form, is received by the organization at its registered office at least 48 hours before the time for which the meeting was called or, if the meeting has been adjourned, before the meeting is resumed.

7.3 Standing appointments

A Full Member may appoint a proxy to act at a particular general meeting of Members or make a standing appointment and may revoke any appointment. A proxy must be a Full Member.

7.4 Suspension of proxy's powers if Member present

A proxy has no power to act for a Full Member at a meeting at which the Member is present in the case of:

- (a) an individual, in person; or
- (b) a body corporate, by representative.

7.5 More than 1 current proxy appointments

An appointment of proxy by a Full Member is revoked (or, in the case of a standing appointment, suspended for that particular meeting) if the organization receives a further appointment of proxy from that Full Member which would result in there being more than 1 proxy of that Full Member entitled to act at a meeting. The appointment of the proxy first received is the one revoked or suspended in these circumstances.

7.6 Continuing authority

An act done at a meeting of Full Members by a proxy is valid even if, before the act is done, the appointing Member:

- (a) dies or becomes mentally incapacitated;
- (b) becomes bankrupt or an insolvent under administration or is wound up; or
- (c) revokes the appointment or the authority under which the appointment was made by a third party, unless the organization has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which the vote is cast.

8. ENTITLEMENT TO VOTE

8.1 Number of votes

- (a) Each Full Member is entitled to 1 vote on a show of hands or a poll.
- (b) A Full Member who is present and entitled to vote and is also a proxy of another Full Member has one vote on a show of hands or by electronic vote.

8.2 Casting vote of Chair

Where an equal number of votes are cast in favour of and against a resolution the Chair may exercise a deciding vote.

8.3 Decision on right to vote

A Full Member or Director may challenge a person's right to vote at a meeting of Members. A challenge may only be made at the meeting. A challenge, or any other doubt as to the validity of a vote, must be initially decided by the Chair and may be appealed to the Full Members present, who by a majority vote, shall make a decision that is final.

9. HOW VOTING IS CARRIED OUT

9.1 Method of voting

A resolution put to the vote at a meeting of Members must be decided on a show of hands, or by electronic votes tabled by the Secretary, unless a poll is demanded either before or on declaration of the result of the vote on a show of hands. Unless a poll is demanded, the Chair's declaration of a decision on a show of hands, or by electronic votes tabled by the Secretary, is final.

9.2 Demand for a poll

A poll may be demanded on any resolution or motion (except a resolution concerning the election of the chair of a meeting) by:

- (a) a majority of the Full Members that are present at that meeting, either in person or by electronic means, or represented by proxy and are entitled to vote; or
- (b) the Chair.

The demand for a poll does not affect the continuation of the meeting for the transaction of other business and may be withdrawn.

9.3 When and how polls must be taken

If a poll is demanded:

- (a) if the resolution is for the adjournment of the meeting, the poll must be taken immediately and in the manner that the Chair of the meeting directs;
- (b) in all other cases, the poll must be taken at the time and place and in the manner that the Chair of the meeting directs;
- (c) a person voting who has the right to cast 2 or more votes need not cast all those votes and may cast those votes in different ways;
- (d) the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded; and
- (e) if there is a dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote the Chair must decide it and the Chair's decision is final.

9.4 Decision by majority

The Board must produce an annual financial plan for each forthcoming year, which will give reasonable estimates of likely income and expenditure.

20.6 Funds

- (a) As a nonprofit organization, the organization may collect, raise, or disperse funds or obtain grants for the accomplishment of its objectives.
- (b) Any member who is offered a grant or contribution towards the organization shall immediately notify the President of such an offer. Such an offer will only be accepted on approval of the President, and on any terms and conditions to such offer being reduced to writing and signed by both parties, either by hand or by electronic signature.

21. NON-LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

21.1 The officers and directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the organization.

21.2 The board of directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation (including a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation) against any liability other than for violating provisions of law relating to self-dealing (Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law) asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

- 21.3 Subject to law, the organization may enter into, and pay premiums on, insurance covering the organization, directors and officers, or of any person, or for any official function of the organization.
- 21.4 To the extent that a person who is, or was, a director, officer, employee, or other agent of this corporation has been successful on the merits in defence of any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative proceeding brought to procure a judgment against such person by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, an agent of the corporation, or has been successful in defence of any claim, issue, or matter, therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such proceeding.
- 21.5 If such person either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment against him or her, then indemnification against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts reasonably incurred in connection with such proceedings shall be provided by this corporation but only to the extent allowed by, and in accordance with the requirements of, Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

21.6 Former officers and directors

The indemnity in favour of former officers and directors is a continuing indemnity. It applies to all acts done by a person while an officer or director of the organization even though the person is not an officer or director at the time the claim is made.

22. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND COMPENSATION APPROVAL POLICIES

- 22.1 The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect the International Ranger Federation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the corporation or any "disqualified person" as defined in section 4958(f)(1) of the internal revenue code and as amplified by section 53.4958-3 of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations and which might result in a possible "excess benefit transaction" as defined in section 4958(c)(1)(a) of the internal revenue code and as amplified by section 53.4958 of the IRS regulations. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

22.2 Definitions

- (a) Interested person.
 - (i) Any director, principal officer, member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, or any other person who is a "disqualified person" as defined in section 4958(f)(1) of the internal revenue code and as amplified by section 53.4958-3 of the IRS regulations, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person
- (b) Financial interest.
 - (i) A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - (ii) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement,

- (iii) A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with any entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - (iv) A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
 - (v) A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under section 3, paragraph b, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the organization board, or a committee with delegated powers from the board, decides that a conflict of interest exists.
- (c) Compensation
- (i) Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial

23. Conflict of interest avoidance procedures

23.1 Duty to disclose.

- (a) In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

23.2 Determining whether a conflict of interest exists.

- (a) After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

23.3 Procedures for addressing the conflict of interest.

- (a) An interested person may make a presentation to the board, or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- (b) The president of the board shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person, or committee, to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- (c) After exercising due diligence, the organization board, or committee, if appointed by the board, shall determine whether the organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- (d) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the organization board shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

23.4 Violations of the conflicts of interest policy.

- (a) If the organization board has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- (b) If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the organization board determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

24. Records of board and board committee proceedings

- (a) The minutes of meetings of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:
- (b) The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the organization board's or designated committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- (c) The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

25. Compensation approval policies.

- 25.1 A voting member of the organization board of directors who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- 25.2 A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- 25.3 No voting member of the organization board, or any committee member whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.
- 25.4 When approving compensation for officers, employees, contractors, and any other compensation contract or arrangement, in addition to complying with the conflict of interest requirements and policies contained in the preceding and following sections of this article, as well as the preceding paragraphs of this section of this article, the board or a duly constituted compensation committee of the board, shall also comply with the following additional requirements and procedures:
 - (a) The terms of compensation shall be approved by the board, or a committee with board delegated powers, compensation committee prior to the first payment of compensation.
 - (b) All members of the organization board, or the board's delegated compensation committee who approves has board authority for compensation arrangements, must not have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement as specified in IRS regulation section 53.4958-6(c)(iii), which generally requires that each board member or committee member approving a compensation arrangement between this organization and a “disqualified person” (as defined in section 4958(f)(1) of the internal revenue code and as amplified by section 53.4958-3 of the IRS regulations):

- (i) Is not the person who is the subject of compensation arrangement, or a family member of such person;
 - (ii) Is not in an employment relationship subject to the direction or control of the person who is the subject of compensation arrangement
 - (iii) Does not receive compensation or other payments subject to approval by the person who is the subject of compensation arrangement
 - (iv) Has no material financial interest affected by the compensation arrangement; and
 - (v) Does not approve a transaction providing economic benefits to the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement, who in turn has approved or will approve a transaction providing benefits to the board or committee member.
- (c) The board, or compensation committee, shall obtain and rely upon appropriate data as to comparability prior to approving the terms of compensation. Appropriate data may include the following:
- (i) Compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations, both taxable and tax-exempt, for functionally comparable positions. “similarly situated” organizations are those of a similar size and purpose and with similar resources
 - (ii) The availability of similar services in the geographic area of this organization
 - (iii) Current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms
 - (iv) Actual written offers from similar institutions competing for the services of the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement.
 - (v) As allowed by IRS regulation 4958-6, if this organization has average annual gross receipts (including contributions) for its three prior tax years of less than $1 million, the board, or compensation committee, will have obtained and relied upon appropriate data as to comparability if it obtains and relies upon data on compensation paid by three comparable organizations in the same or similar communities for similar services.
- (d) the terms of compensation and the basis for approving them shall be recorded in written minutes of the meeting of the organization board, or compensation committee, that approved the compensation. Such documentation shall include:
- (i) the terms of the compensation arrangement and the date it was approved.
 - (ii) the members of the board or compensation committee who were present during debate on the transaction, those who voted on it, and the votes cast by each board or committee member.
 - (iii) the comparability data obtained and relied upon and how the data was obtained.
 - (iv) the board or compensation committee determines that reasonable compensation for a specific position in this organization or for providing services under any other compensation arrangement with this organization is higher or lower than the range of comparability data obtained, the board or committee shall record in the minutes of the meeting the basis for its determination.

- (v) the board or committee makes adjustments to comparability data due to geographic area or other specific conditions, these adjustments and the reasons for them shall be recorded in the minutes of the board or committee meeting.
- (vi) any actions taken with respect to determining if a board or committee member had a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement, and if so, actions taken to make sure the member with the conflict of interest did not affect or participate in the approval of the transaction (for example, a notation in the records that after a finding of conflict of interest by a member, the member with the conflict of interest was asked to, and did, leave the meeting prior to a discussion of the compensation arrangement and a taking of the votes to approve the arrangement).

25.5 The minutes of board or committee meetings at which compensation arrangements are approved must be prepared before the later of the date of the next board or committee meeting or 60 days after the final actions of the board or committee are taken with respect to the approval of the compensation arrangements. The minutes must be reviewed and approved by the board and committee as reasonable, accurate, and complete within a reasonable period thereafter, normally prior to or at the next board or committee meeting following final action on the arrangement by the board or committee.

26. Restriction regarding interested directors

- 26.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the board may be interested persons (ccc §5227). For purposes of this section, "interested persons" means either:
- (a) Any person currently being compensated by the organization for services rendered it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time officer or other employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a director as director; or
 - (b) Any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person.

27. Annual statements

- 27.1 Each director, principal officer, and member of a committee with organization board delegated powers, shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:
- (a) Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
 - (b) Has read and understands the policy,
 - (c) Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
 - (d) Understands the corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

28. Periodic reviews

- 28.1 To ensure the corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- (a) Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's-length bargaining.
- (b) Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or in an excess benefit transaction.

29. Use of outside experts

29.1 When conducting the periodic reviews as provided, the corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

30. REGULATIONS

- (a) The Board shall formulate and adopt Regulations for the proper advancement, management and administration of the organization and the advancement of the objectives. The Board may amend, alter, and interpret, the Regulations as it determines is necessary or desirable.
- (b) Any regulations must be in conformity with these Bylaws.
- (c) The regulations bind all Members and Directors.
- (d) The Chair will bring to the notice of the Members all regulations and any formulation, interpretation, amendment, alteration and repeal of them.

31. ADDITION, ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

No addition, alteration or amendment will be made to these Bylaws nor have any effect unless it has been:

- (a) approved by Resolution at an Annual General Meeting or at the General Meeting at the World Ranger Congress; and
- (b) registered in accordance with the law.

32. DISSOLUTION

If the organization decides to cease operations, the dissolving and winding up of the corporation shall be done according to California nonprofit corporation law
